

The Music and Media Team

Dave Alexander - Head of Art, Design and Media

Dave Alexander studied BA (Hons) Film & Video at the University for Creative Arts and went on to complete his MSc in Digital Media Production at the University of Brighton.

He has also directed a number of music videos and documentaries.

Dave joined us as Section Leader for Art, Design and Media in 2012, and is now the Head of Department at the University Centre Somerset. He is responsible for the curriculum development of several HE courses including Media and Music.

Ben Amos – is a Course Leader in Creative Arts. He is a Certified Apple Trainer and is the Managing Director of his own record label, Lockdown Recordings Ltd.

Luke Chard-Maple – has experience as a music teacher and music producer. He has a BSc (Hons) in Music Technology which he achieved in 2011 at the University of Glamorgan. Luke is a member of the Audio Engineers Society.

Simon Prentice – is a member of the Apple Developer Programme and has been a member of the team since 2006. He is also a freelance web designer and specialises in a number of different software such as Adobe Creative Suite and Logic Pro.

Matt Aung – joined us as a technician in 2012. He has a Masters in music composition and regularly gigs with his local band playing drums. He has been an associate lecturer for the music department for a number of years.

Sinead McMillan – joined us in 2014 as an associate lecturer. She is an experienced pianist/vocalist having trained at London School of Music. She currently forms part of, critically acclaimed electronic pop duo 'Face+Heel' with Luke Taylor.

Luke Taylor – has worked within the music industry for over 20 years as artist and musician. He is currently part of an electronic pop duo 'Face+Heel' with Sinead McMillan and has received much critical acclaim. Luke joined the college in 2015 as an associate lecturer.